Open weekends before & after Masses

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

By Fr. Terry Kerner

Looking over the calendar for the next several weeks reminds us of quickly the holiday season is coming upon us. Even the heavy snow fall last week made a statement as if we needed one. The annual Harvest Dinner is scheduled for next Saturday, November 23rd after the 4:00 PM Mass. This Monday is the final day for purchase! Please note, NO tickets will be sold at the door. Please don't hesitate to get your tickets now.

This time of year there are always opportunities to both celebrate and give service. I invite you to consider some of many outreach projects St. Kateri makes available. One is the annual Giving Tree that reaches out to three local charities each year. Nativity Parish, located in the poorest zip code in Detroit, has requested 150 different items for families and individuals. Vista Maria Home for young women relies on our sensitivity and kindness each Christmas as well. Our third charity is the St. Patrick Senior Center that provides a daily warm meal and socializing for several inner city elderly. You are invited to visit one of the three Giving Trees located around the church for your invitation to help someone in need this Christmas.

Our Armed Forces could use a Christmas greeting from all of us. You have the chance for this by signing Christmas cards with your personal greeting. Look for the table in Resurrection Hall (gathering space) to take the opportunity to extend your Christmas greetings.

See in the weekly bulletin for other ways you can serve the St. Kateri community. Lighting the Advent candle this upcoming season, Christmas decorating, cleaning or just giving a hand when needed, all shares in the holiday spirit. Make it happen!

Have a good week!

FAITH FORMATION

By Grace Lakatos

FAITH FORMATION: November is a month of prayers to the saints and to our departed loved ones. For me, this time of year means finding a good book to cuddle up with and a cup of hot tea. One book on the saints that I would recommend is "My Life with the Saints" by Fr. James Martin, a Jesuit priest. I'm on my 3rd reading of the book. It not only talks about each saint but also how he came to know the saints and the impact the saints has had on his life. I guarantee that the first chapter "The Saint of the Sock Drawer" will have you hooked. Also on my radar to read are "A Book of Saints for Catholic Moms" by Lisa M. Hendey and "God's Wild Flowers: Saints with Disabilities" by Pia Matthews. The first is self-explanatory . . . I'm a mom and always will be no matter how old John and Katie get to be. The second is a reminder that even with a challenge in life (AKA: disability . . . by the way, I hate that word!), we are all beautiful in God's eyes. All of these books can be obtained through our own gift shop, the ladies are there to help. It's a great time to read about those who have paved the way for us. If you have a suggestion for my reading list, drop me a note, email or stop me after Mass. I'd love to know where you are finding your inspiration of faith.

Our next class for Faith Formation will be Saturday, December 7th beginning with 4 PM Mass.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION CLASSES: Please continue to keep our 6 students, their parents and their catechists in your prayers as they continue their journey to the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Confirmation. Our next class will meet on Monday, December 2nd at 6 PM.

RCIA: Our parish continues to be blessed in the participation in the joint RCIA program with Sacred Heart, St. Sebastian and St. Albert the Great. We continue to meet here each Wednesday night in preparation of the full initiation of these adults at the Easter Vigil. One parishioner from St. Kateri is currently preparing for the reception of Eucharist and Confirmation. Please keep them and their sponsors and families in your prayers.

Dear St. Kateri Parish,

Thanks to your generosity, our annual Halloween celebration was a huge success again this year! Our neighbors turned out faithfully to celebrate with us, with roughly 2,500 attending again this year! From the very young to the "young at heart," all had a great time playing games, high-fiving, praying with each other and sharing laughs. I have attached some pictures to give you and the St. Kateri family a glimpse into the beautiful joy they brought to the hearts (and faces) of so many of our wonderful neighbors. There were too many great moments to share in one email, so I hope these pictures help to capture them just a bit.

Again, thank you so much for your generosity in making the day, week or even year of so many of our young neighbors, and for helping their parents and grandparents experience the joy of seeing them so excited! None of this could be possible without you and your kind support. Thank you for sharing your missionary spirit, as Pope Francis so often encourages! Please keep us in prayer as we do you.

Again, thank you!

ST. KATERI PARISH GIFT SHOP NEWS

It's that time of year again...with Christmas music already on the radio and talk of Black Friday sales. Consider visiting the Parish Gift Shop for alternative cards and gifts commemorating the "true reason for the season." We carry Advent wreathes, candles, Christmas cards, books, nativity scenes, ornaments and gifts. Proceeds benefit the Parish and the Red Cloud Indian School. The Gift

Shop is open on Tuesdays in Advent from 4 PM until 6:30 PM and before and after all weekend Masses.

HOLIDAY MAIL FOR HEROES

Consider purchasing and signing Christmas cards for our men & women in the military, religious or secular. Encouragement and thanks is a thoughtful step but nothing political or inappropriate. Last names are not necessary or encouraged. No items should be placed in the cards, including glitter, confetti, gift cards, and such. Envelopes can be addressed as one of the following: Military Man, Military Woman, Military Family, Military Personnel or Veteran. Cards can be dropped off at the parish center beginning November 18th. Additional cards will be in Resurrection Hall before and after all Masses between November 23rd and December 15th

Father, we lift up all those who are facing illness today. We ask that you would bring healing, comfort and peace to their bodies. Calm their fears and let them experience the healing power of Your love! In Jesus' name, Amen!

If you wish to add a name to this list, please call the office 313-336-3227. Thank you

Thank You

On behalf of the St. Kateri Parish family, we would like to thank the Knights of Columbus O'Kelley Council and Boy Scout Troop #1151 of Divine Child Parish for sharing with us the Flag Retirement Ceremony.

Special thanks to Rob Ciavaglia for arranging the ceremony for us. The reverence, respect and dignity shown to our veterans during the presentation of stars and to our national symbol touched many hearts deeply. Thank you again and God bless you.

PRAYER

*Let nothing disturb you.
Let nothing frighten you.
All things will pass away.
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things.
Whoever has God lacks nothing.
God alone suffices.
Amen.
— Let Nothing Disturb You
(attributed to St. Teresa of Avila)*

We are experiencing a time of upheaval in our secular and Church worlds, and people are feeling the grief that comes with loss and change. But can this also be a time of hope and the birth of something new? We easily forget that God is in charge and that the essence of His presence and the mission of the Gospel always remain.
