Open weekends before & after
Masses

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

By Fr. Terry Kerner

Thank you to all who supported the Capuchins with a purchase of baked goods. At the end of the weekend $2,635 was raised and many sweet tooth (or perhaps, sweet dentures) was satisfied. The “On the Rise Bakery” was started by the “Caps” a few years back to help recovering alcoholics and addicts get back on their feet with a meaningful trade and job. The bakery has had a very high success rate over the years. (Edward, who spoke at all the Masses, mentioned that some larger suburban parishes have not done as well as St. Kateri did last week.) THANK YOU to all who made the effort to help and purchase some great treats.

We have planned to have the bakers back during Lent taking pre-orders for Easter coffee cakes, breads and rolls. Stay tuned for all the details.

All Saints Day, a Holy Day of obligation is this Friday. Masses are scheduled for 9 AM, Noon and 5 PM. The Feast of All Saints dates back to the fourth century when Christianity became “legal” and protected by the Roman Empire. The feast was celebrated on many different dates until finally in the ninth century Pope Gregory IV set the date on November first. The feast has meaning when we realize that countless saints exist but have never been officially canonized. It is even more significant when we reflect on family and friends who have passed and who were truly holy persons. Take time this Friday to remember those folks who inspired you to be a good person and maybe even want to become a saint.

Saturday, November 2nd is the Feast of All Souls. Though not a holy day of obligation but one that instinctively calls us to remember deceased loved ones. On Sunday at the 11:00 AM Mass we will recognize with a lighted candle on the altar all our parishioners who have died since last All Souls Day. Family and friends are encourage to attend, present the lighted candle, and pray for their loved ones in union with the St. Kateri community. You may want to utter the following prayer for your deceased loved ones:

Almighty God and Father, by the mystery of the cross, you have made us strong, and by the sacrament of the resurrection you have sealed us as your own. Look kindly upon your servants, now freed from the bonds of mortality, and count them among your saints in heaven.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord
And let perpetual light shine upon them

FAITH FORMATION

By Grace Lakatos

FAITH FORMATION: In conjunction with All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, our next class on Saturday, November 2nd will present the students and families with the opportunity to remember the loved ones that have passed away. Students are asked to bring a picture of their loved one with them to Mass and class for a special activity.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION CLASSES: Please continue to keep our 6 students, their parents and their catechists in your prayers as they continue their journey to the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Confirmation. Our next class will meet on Monday, November 4th at 6 PM.

On the Rise Bakery: Last weekend's attendance by On The Rise Bakery in our parish was a great success. Many ooh's and ahh's were heard as the delicious tasting and tantalizing appearances of their breads, cookies, rolls and more were purchased. Thank you to Ed from On The Rise Bakery for sharing his story with the parish and for all his hard work in bringing these goodies to us. Thank you to Fr. Kerner for the opportunity to host this event and lastly to all the volunteers who helped with the set-up, sales and clean-up.

Thank you to the Pastor and all of the parishioners at St. Kateri for their support! Also, thank you to all the volunteers who helped with the set up and the selling. The total spirit of the parish made the weekend wonderful and fun.

And if you are ever downtown please visit us at our Cafe - open Tuesday thru Saturday, 8 AM - 6 PM at 8900 Gratiot.

HALLOWEEN

Question: Is Halloween a pagan holiday or a Catholic one?

Answer: The short answer: nowadays, a little bit of both. But it wasn't always that way. Halloween and All Saints' Day are closely connected. In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints' Day. It was originally called All Hallow's Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallows' Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and pranks?

All Saints' Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2nd is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as "dark" spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today's celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. But remember ... this feast was Catholic first!

ST. KATERI PARISH GIFT SHOP NEWS

November is upon us, the month of All Souls and All Saints. (So we are all covered!) To remember the souls of our departed loved ones, the Gift Shop carries outdoor cemetery candles, cemetery candle holders and memorial ornaments.

We will be open before and after Masses on Friday, November 1st, the feast of All Saints. Take some time this month to read about the saints. We have a separate bookshelf dedicated to books about these holy men and women...some contemporary and some traditional. There are also books with collections of saint biographies for both adults and children. Your children and grandchildren need to learn about these real super heroes who walked the earth and faced similar challenges to ours.

Some parishioners are already asking about Advent and Christmas items. We will be putting those items out soon. We hope to have some new items out such as ornaments, cards, manger figures, and vinyl window décor. Thank you for your continued support!

RETIREMENT OF AMERICAN FLAGS

If you have a worn-out American Flag that is beyond repair, the Knights of Columbus O'Kelley Council will be performing the proper, dignified way of retirement during a flag burning ceremony on Saturday, November 9th at 5:00 PM. All parishioners are invited to attend the ceremony. All veterans present will receive a star from one of the retired flags. Please consider dropping off your worn-out, frayed flags at the parish office by Wednesday, November 6th.

A Prayer for First Responders

Pray for the family and loved ones of first responders.
 Lord, have mercy on those who must wait, trust and hope every time a first responder goes into action. They are all too aware of the dangers their loved ones face. Please, as Your word promises, keep them in perfect peace; steady their minds and help them to trust in You (Isaiah 26:3), in Jesus' name, amen.
