From the desk of Father Terry Kerner

This past week we lost a great priest and dear friend of so many Dearborn citizens. Fr. Jack Childs entered eternal life on, October 10th and his funeral was celebrated on Friday, October 15th at Sacred Heart Church. Fr. Jack was the pastor of St. Martha and enjoyed the love and respect of his parishioners for years. He will be remembered by for his kindness and pastoral concern for his people and steady and competent administration of two Dearborn parishes, St. Martha and Sacred Heart. Even in retirement he continued parish administration when he served as temporary administrator for four months at St. Joseph after the death of Fr. Redwick. It was at this time that I first got to know Fr. Jack when he welcomed me as the new pastor of both St. Martha and St. Joseph. Asking for his thoughts and advice for my new undertaking, Jack simply said: "I think you'll like Dearborn." He was right!

When asked his birth date Fr. Jack would proudly invite the questioner to check out the date above the iron gates leading into Greenfield Village. Both the Village and "Baby Jack" made their mark on the world the same day. It's not hard to believe that Heaven's "pearly gates" now share a similar privilege. May he rest in peace.

This Thursday St. Kateri will host a day of prayer and thanksgiving as we recognize the anniversary of our patroness's canonization. The day begins with 9 am Mass and includes an exhibit of some twenty saints along with talks by Fr. Henry Sands, Executive Director of the Bishops Committee on Native and Black American Catholics. The day begins with Mass and concludes by mid-afternoon and includes complimentary lunch and refreshments. Invite your friends, the day is open to all. (You might even want to wish Fr. Henry a "Happy Birthday" which he celebrates October 17th!)

I am sorry to report that the parish sponsored Red Cross Blood Drive for this Wednesday, October 20th, has been cancelled. Not for lack of your generosity (already a dozen or more of you have volunteered to donate) but sadly the Red Cross inability to get the medical personnel to staff the day. What a strange and sad time we live in when such an important and life giving event cannot take place simply because people don't want to work!

As for myself, I hope to know in the next few weeks whether or not I have overcome my heart infection and built up my strength to get back to normalcy. Please continue with the prayers. You've got mine!

Great Lily of the Mohawks, we ask that you take our intentions to the foot of the cross. Ask Jesus to bring healing to those who we remember here..

Through your intercession, may this favor be granted if it is according to the will of God. By your prayer, help us always to remain faithful to Jesus and to his Holy Church. St. Kateri Tekakwitha, pray for us.

Amen
Jack Wintz, OFM

Abandoning Ourselves to God, 3 of 3

Our last article closed, saying, we can think that evil is basically good and that we need it, at least a little, in order to experience the fullness of being. We think that a little bargaining with evil, keeping for oneself a little freedom against God is basically a good thing, perhaps even necessary. In this article, we continue to follow the thought of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI.

The person who abandons himself totally in God's hands does not become God's puppet, a boring "yes man." Only the person who entrusts himself totally to God finds true freedom, the freedom to say "yes" to God's own creative goodness working in and through us. The person who turns to God does not become smaller but greater, for through God and with God he becomes great, he becomes divine, he becomes truly the self that God created him to be.

The person who puts himself in God's hands does not distance himself from others, withdrawing into his private salvation; on the contrary, it is only then that his heart truly awakens and he becomes a sensitive, hence, benevolent and open person. The closer a person is to God, the closer he is to people.

We see this in Mary. Her love, trust and obedience to God when it felt right and when it made no sense at all to her, united her inextricably to her Son's own love, trust and obedience to the Father. The fact that she is totally with God is the reason why she is so close to human beings. She endured the Lord's suffering as only a mother could, for our good. Thus, she can be the Mother of every consolation and every help, a Mother whom anyone can dare to address in any kind of need in weakness and in sin. Her union with the Son gives her understanding for everything, becoming for everyone the open power of God's creative goodness.

Mary's "yes", her abandonment to God, is also the model of our "yes", our abandonment to God. Mary had no need to flirt with evil to be a complete, loving, fulfilled human being. Let us emulate Mary.

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks about drinking from a cup. At what point at Mass does the priest first drink from the cup?

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Js that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

Holy Chrism

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

All trained and qualified Eucharistic Ministers, regardless of your parish, are welcome to serve Holy Communion at St. Kateri. Father needs three EMs at each Mass for the Precious Body. Please come forward during the greeting of peace if you wish to serve. Your generosity in this ministry is much appreciated.

St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, where he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus' example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson's disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005, and he was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014.
