Grow in your faith this Lent! Join us in watching "The Chosen"

"The Chosen" is a very engaging film series that is biblically and historically based. The characters' personalities are very down to earth and they are given interesting backstories. In the series, Jesus begins His ministry, calls His disciples and proclaims His message to the people. Many viewers have said that the series has helped them to better picture and understand the Gospels.

St. Kateri Parish will be showing both Season One (for those who haven't seen it) and the newly released Season Three (for those who have already seen Seasons One and Two). There will be 2 opportunities each week in March to view the episodes. (Sundays and Tuesdays).

Since there are 8 episodes in each season, we will show 2 of the same episodes Sunday and Tuesday in March. Each episode is about 1 hour long. Season 1 and Season 3 will be shown in two separate classrooms at our Parish Center.

SHOWTIMES: 12:15pm on Sundays, March 5, 12, 19 and 26
2pm on Tuesdays, March 7, 14, 21 and 28
St. Kateri Parish Center Classrooms

Hope that you can join us for this remarkable series!

(Church will be open following Tuesday viewings for private adoration.)

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Spirit leads Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil, and we hear this: “He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry.” Seems like a questionable battle preparation plan. When I fast, I usually feel grouchy at best, and at worst, like I might pass out from longing for a hamburger. Isn't it better to be well-fed and fully hydrated, especially to face spiritual struggles? Why fast?

This might help. The origin of the word “fast” means to “hold firmly.” We still use it that way when we say, “I held fast to my original decision.” We human beings are a bundle of desires which vie for our attention: food, drink, comfort, safety, sex, laughter, beauty, and so on. If we can't manage to have firm grip on them, in short order they'll have a firm grip on us. By fasting from our lower desires, we learn to firmly grip on to what is greater. Fasting leads to us to a firmer hold on our body and mind.

Jesus fasts for us. He's showing us that his grace can help us regain this firm hold of our lives, which makes it more difficult for the devil to tempt us. But take it one more step. Fasting also teaches us to finally hold fast to Jesus, the Word of God in flesh. “Man does not live by bread alone,” he says, “But by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.” Jesus' fasting reveals his fast hold to the Father in everything. May our fasting help us to grasp ourselves more firmly, and then to hold fast to Jesus alone.

— Father John Muir

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We worship a God who understands human limitation. A God who has felt the pangs of fasting and the enticements of the tempter. Our God, hungry and tired and weakened, has stared into the face of the devil and said: “I am stronger than you ”

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Genesis teaches us that humanity's first sin against God was that of disobedience — they listened to the voice of the snake (the devil) rather than God's voice. What are some ways we can avoid the sin of disobedience in this first week of Lent?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches us that through Jesus' obedience to his Father (as opposed to Adam's “transgression”), believers receive the gift of God's grace and “acquittal” from condemnation. How can we all be more mindful of this divine reversal of fortunes during Lent?

Gospel:

Each year the Gospel reading for the season of Lent begins with the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert by the devil. What temptations are you willing to confront during the forty days of Lent?

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent

Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, “All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me.” At this, Jesus said to him, “Get away, Satan!”

— Mt 4:8-10a

St. Kateri Parish Gift Shop News

Lent is upon us, bringing another opportunity to reflect on our lives and deepen our relationship with God. Lenten practices don't always have to involve "giving things up," but also doing new positive things. Changing our lives in these positive ways involves discipline too. Try reading more spiritual books or practice a new devotion. A visit to our Gift Shop may give you some ideas. Browsing is free!

Venerable Brother William Gagnon was born on May 16, 1905, in Dover, New Hampshire as the third of twelve children. He cared for every victim of war who entered his hospital regardless of military affiliation. He served as a missionary to Vietnam between 1952 and 1972. Brother Gagnon served his community in Vietnam until dying of heart failure in Saigon in 1972. Pope Francis recognized his heroic virtues and proclaimed him Venerable on December 14, 2015.
