O Great Lily of the Mohawks, we ask that you take our intentions to the foot of the cross. Ask Jesus to bring healing to those who are heavily burdened. Through your intercession, may this favor be granted if it is according to the will of God. By your prayer, help us always to remain faithful to Jesus and to his Holy Church. St. Kateri Tekakwitha, pray for us. Amen.

Venerable Aloysius Schwartz
 (Father Al) spent his life embracing poverty, building hospitals, and supporting orphans in war-torn Korea, the Philippines, and the Americas. His legacy lives on through the religious orders he founded — the Sisters of Mary and the Brothers of Christ.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

God asks a rhetorical and slightly sarcastic question to Samuel, the prophet: “How long will you grieve for Saul, whom I have rejected as king of Israel?” Like us, Samuel is depressed that the old king failed. It’s painful to admit that the old regime is done. But God won’t let us wallow our pity-party forever. “I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem,” announces the Lord, “for I have chosen my king from among his sons.” Samuel finally goes and anoints the young David as the new king. And his kingdom is glorious; it’s the golden age of Israel’s earthly history.

How discouraging to see that my own selfish ego is no longer in charge! How long will I grieve that money, power, pleasure, and reputation have been rejected as the ruler of my life? How wonderful that God has a new future in store for you and me. He is sending us to Bethlehem to anoint the new David as our king. His kingdom won’t fail us. He’ll slay our goliaths, unite our dispersed energies, and build a Temple where God himself will dwell.

So how long will you grieve? How long? — Father John Muir

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?” He answered and said, “Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?” Jesus said to him, “You have seen him and the one speaking with you is he.” He said, “I do believe, Lord,” and he worshiped him. — Jn 9:35-38

The Archdiocese of Detroit and St. Kateri Parish are the hosts of a Nicholas Black Elk, St. Kateri Circle in Southeastern Michigan. The Circle is part of the National Tekakwitha Conference based in Louisiana. Circles all over the U.S. and Canada were instrumental in promoting the cause of sainthood for St. Kateri Tekakwitha. Now, in addition to prayer, the Circles help to unite Native American Catholics in order to celebrate their unique cultural expressions of faith. They work to promote truth and healing along with Native American inclusion in the Catholic Church.

Did you Know?

offer encouragement and celebrate the richness and diversity of Creator’s gifts.

This year, the National Tekakwitha Conference will be held in Minneapolis from July19-23. It is open to all. Our local Nicholas Black Elk Prayer Circle has been asked to provide 500 tobacco ties to welcome Conference attendees. We are looking for volunteers who can help with this project on:

Wednesday, March 29. 2023
3pm to 7pm or until supplies are depleted
St. Kateri Tekakwitha Parish Center
16101 Rotunda Drive, Dearborn
(Between Southfield and Greenfield Roads)

If you are interested in volunteering for one or more hours, please RSVP to reserve a time slot. Contact:
Pat Urban at (313)359-0461

For information on our local Nicholas Black Elk Prayer Circle, contact:
Vickie Figueroa at (313)596-7103

Julienne Montour (Catholic Mohawk) has offered to give us a teaching and instruct us in making the ties. Materials will be provided.

AROUND THE SHOP

Lent is already half over, but Lenten practices can still be started if you haven't done so already. Spiritual reading, devotions, acts of charity, almsgiving and gifting aren't limited by dates. They should be a regular part of our lives as Catholics. The Gift Shop might provide some ideas for you. If you are new to the parish, consider volunteering in some way at our parish. It's a great way to meet people and build our community.

The Pysanky decorated eggs have arrived from Ukraine. This year we have individual wooden eggs, gift boxes of 5 eggs and baskets of 3 eggs with an icon of the Resurrected Christ. Supplies are limited....so if you are interested, visit us soon. The eggs make beautiful gifts and colorful additions to Easter baskets.

Due Today

Easter Floral Tribute

You can download the form from our website

<http://stkateridearborn.org/index.php/document/easter-floral-tribute-form/>.

Or you may also use the envelope enclosed in the March/April packet.

The suggested price is $10 per name or family name. We encourage you to list the family name rather than each individual name. It will save you money. One very beautiful plant can represent the entire family.

It is very important to PRINT the names clearly so we do not have to call you for clarification.

REMEMBER
OUR DEADLINE IS MARCH 19TH

Grow in your faith this Lent! Join us in watching "The Chosen"

"The Chosen" is a very engaging film series that is biblically and historically based. The characters' personalities are very down to earth and they are given interesting backstories. In the series, Jesus begins His ministry, calls His disciples and proclaims His message to the people. Many viewers have said that the series has helped them to better picture and understand the Gospels.

St. Kateri Parish will be showing both Season One (for those who haven't seen it) and the newly released Season Three (for those who have already seen Seasons One and Two). There will be 2 opportunities each week in March to view the episodes. (Sundays and Tuesdays).

Since there are 8 episodes in each season, we will show 2 of the same episodes Sunday and Tuesday in March. Each episode is about 1 hour long. Season 1 and Season 3 will be shown in two separate classrooms at our Parish Center.

SHOWTIMES: 12:15pm on Sundays, March 19 and 26
2pm on Tuesdays, March 21 and 28

St. Kateri Parish Center Classrooms

Hope that you can join us for this remarkable series!

(Church will be open following Tuesday viewings for private adoration.)

Thou Shalt . . .

1. Thou shalt not worry, it is unproductive.
2. Thou shalt not be fearful, most fears never happen.
3. Thou shalt face each problem as it comes.
4. Thou shalt not cross bridges before you get to them.
5. Thou shalt not take problems to bed with you.
6. Thou shalt not borrow other people's problems.
7. Thou shalt not relive yesterday, it's gone.
8. Thou shalt not be bogged down by frustration.
9. Thou shalt be a good listener.
10. Thou shalt count thy blessings.
