Open weekends before and after Masses

From the Pastor's Desk by Fr. Terry Kerner,

This weekend we observe Pentecost. Christ promised that His Advocate would be with us and His Church until the end of time. Hence the words that He uttered to the fearful disciples in today's gospel: "Peace be with you." The words are intended for us as well. With all that is going on in our country these days, it is easy to be not only fearful but also angry. Neither of these is one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Wisdom is. Trying to understand what is happening in our society and sorting out what is right and wrong needs the gift of wisdom. Courage goes hand and hand with it. Courage is no more than denying fear the power to keep a person from doing the morally right thing. Fear of the Lord, another gift of the Spirit, does not mean trembling and fearing God but rather taking God seriously. Wisdom, courage, and fear of the Lord are just a few of the Holy Spirit's gifts to us. May we be grateful for the promised Advocate gifting us with them this Pentecost.

It is easy to see the negative around us. But it is also a blessing to see the goodness in the holiday we celebrate this Monday. Memorial Day is so rich in its meaning for America and our families. Going to morning mass, watching a parade, going to the cemetery or simply gathering with family and friends for a picnic are all part of this special day for our country. Let us enjoy every bit of the more positive and beautiful reality of what America is all about. May Memorial Day be inspiring for you!

Memorial Day Mass will be celebrated at St. Kateri at 9:00am.

All are welcome.

Star of Native People and Bright Light for all! We thank God for your heroic courage, constant perseverance and deep love of the Cross. Pray for us that our love for Christ may deepen. We ask for your prayerful intercession for those we have named. Amen

Venerable Father Patrick Peyton, C.S.C. was an Irish immigrant to the United States. A true pioneer of mass media evangelism, The Rosary Priest reached the entire world with his message of devotion to Christ reminding us that, "A family that prays together stays together."

WITH GRATITUDE AND HONOR
BY J. VELTRI, S.J.

Gracious God, on this Memorial Day weekend, we remember and give thanks for those who have given their lives in the service of our country. When the need was greatest, they stepped forward and did their duty to defend the freedoms that we enjoy, and to win the same for others.

O God, you yourself have taught us that no love is greater than that which gives itself for another.

These honored dead gave the most precious gift they had, life itself, for loved ones and neighbors, for comrades and country – and for us.

Help us to honor their memory by caring for the family members they have left behind, by ensuring that their wounded comrades are properly cared for, by being watchful caretakers of the freedoms for which they gave their lives, and by demanding that no other young men and women follow them to a soldier's grave unless the reason is worthy and the cause is just.

Holy One, help us to remember that freedom is not free.

There are times when its cost is, indeed, dear. Never let us forget those who paid so terrible a price to ensure that freedom would be our legacy.

Though their names may fade with the passing of generations, may we never forget what they have done. Help us to be worthy of their sacrifice, O God, help us to be worthy.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

I hope you'll acknowledge with me a simple fact: it's not normal to have tongues of fire "part and come to rest" on people. It is actually pretty strange. Yet that is precisely what we celebrate in this feast of Pentecost. How can this mean something to us in our daily lives?

Jews had a tradition that heaven is a temple made of bricks of fire. So, through the apostles, the heavenly temple is coming to earth. But this fire looks like tongues, not bricks. That means that heavenly speech will be crucial to building a dwelling place for God on earth among men and women. So, it's no surprise when the apostles begin to speak in a miraculous way that is understood by all language groups. They are speaking of what God has done in and through Jesus: bringing heaven to earth and uniting all peoples to God and to each other.

How often our speech divides: gossip, slander, insults, and so on. How strange and rare it is when people speak in ways that truly unite instead of divide. Imagine how powerful it would be if you and I began to speak at home, at work, and in our community in a way that made people hear heavenly speech. Imagine if you spoke of the mighty deeds of God in a way that everyone could understand. That's precisely what the Holy Spirit descends upon us to do. Ask Him to come as a tongue of fire to you once again, and He will. Then speak!

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The disciples at Pentecost were given the grace to speak in the tongues of many nations. When we engage with those who do not believe, who disagree with us, are we speaking the right language? We have to use the words they are able to understand — not just the words we want to say.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles were able to speak "of the mighty acts of God" in many different languages. This speaks of God's desire for all believers to be united. How could you promote unity among those who believe?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of the many different individual gifts of the Spirit that are intended to benefit the larger community. What is the gift you bring to your family or community of friends?

Gospel:

With the power of the Holy Spirit, the resurrected Jesus instructs the disciples with this calling: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." How strong is your sense of vocation?
