Open weekends before and after Masses

To all the fathers in the world: we sincerely greet and salute you on this very special day! We could never thank you enough for the gift of life, the silent and hidden sacrifices and the gentle but firm affection and love you have for your children! On this day, we would like to entrust you to the intercession of St. Joseph, the foster father of Our Lord.

A PRAYER

God our Father, we give you thanks and praise for FATHERS young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for all fathers. Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.

We pray for our own fathers who have supported and challenged us; may they continue to lead in strong and gentle ways.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide with fatherly love and advice.

We pray for our priests who exercise their paternity in a spiritual way and guide us with fatherly direction.

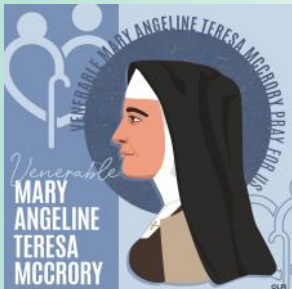

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love and sacrifices.

Amen

Stefano's Eagle Project was a rock garden to beautify the front lawn at St. Kateri Catholic Church in Dearborn, Michigan. With the assistance of fellow scouts, parents, family, friends, and P&P Landscaping, the rock garden was installed on June 23rd, 2021.

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE HOLY FATHER THROUGH THE Peter's Pence Collection

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

NICHOLAS BLACK ELK CIRCLE NEWS

Many thanks to all those who helped us make tobacco ties for the Tekakwitha Conference in Minneapolis! It was so nice to sit around the tables, casually talk to each other and contribute to a good cause. Next, the ties will be blessed at the Solanus Casey Center and then delivered to the Conference in Minnesota. Madonna University has graciously agreed to host our annual Summer Solstice Prayer Service on Wednesday, June 21st at 7pm. All are welcome for this half hour service to honor our Creator God and thank God for all the gifts that we have been given. Fr. Charles Morris will lead the Service which incorporates very meaningful Native American elements. Hope that you can join us!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree which produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring I needed some lemons for a chicken dish. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging thick on seemingly every branch. Turning to Fr. Bob (I'll change his name to protect the innocent) who sat on the couch, I said, "Father, could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and into the backyard he went. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had recently been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place! Like Fr. Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think that the culture is spiraling down, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree.

Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. So, let's ask the Lord to send laborers to get to work. And he will. He might send you and me. Just remember to look at the correct trees. Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Without cost we have received, without cost we are to give. Do we open our hearts to one another with the same reckless love and mercy that God opens His heart to us? How quickly the world could change if we did.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

The Lord teaches Moses that Israel is intended to be his "treasured possession among all peoples ... a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." How would you react when you receive an incredible gift?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches the Christians in Rome that believers are reconciled to God and saved from the final wrath through the death of his Son, Jesus. What do you think we should do with this incredible message of reconciliation and salvation?

Gospel:

Jesus commissioned the twelve disciples to "proclaim the kingdom of heaven is at hand" and "cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons" — in other words, disciples are called to follow Jesus' lead. How can we modern disciples follow Jesus' lead?

We are now at 115% of our target. Thanks for your generosity. Remember anything over our target remains in our parish. There is still time to donate.
