From the Pastor's Desk by Fr. Terry Kerner,

It has been a while since you last heard from me but please know I have not abandoned anyone. This Spring has brought me some challenging health issues dealing with my heart and breathing functions. Thankfully the docs and medical folks have got me pretty much back on track. They have only insisted that I try to get more rest and take time off to build up my stamina which I am doing. I hope to be back in church in the weeks ahead. Meanwhile I have to thank Deacon Tom, Fr. Luke, Fr. Greg and even Bishop Battersby for filling in for me over the last few weekends. Over the last few weeks our parish staff has done a beautiful job of keeping things running well. But then, that is what they always do all year round. Our staff all have the hearts of servants. They have not left you feeling like orphans. I truly want to thank all who have sent me get well cards and messages that have sincerely offered encouragement. Being remembered in your prayer sustains everyone's faith and certainly in my own belief in the power of prayer. In the days ahead I will be seeking to build up my stamina and add a few more hours to my workday. Please keep those prayers coming!

While you are so generous with your prayers you also remain generous year after year to the annual CSA. I thank you for that. Currently we have reached 134% of our assigned target of $48,818. One hundred eighty-three parishioners and visitors have contributed $16,822 over our goal, all of which remains in the parish. As we have always said that our suggested pledge of $300 might be too difficult for some folks and at the same time it might be less challenging for others. Even if you are not in a position to contribute, please return your card indicating that and we will know that you are supporting the CSA with your prayer and concern. Non-registered worshipers are also invited to make a donation to the parish CSA. Indicate in an envelope that your donation is for the CSA and place it in one of the offertory baskets around the church. It is the only fundraiser the parish has, and it always goes to meet parish needs. THANK YOU to all who are supporting this year's efforts.

Enjoy the summer weeks ahead — they go by so quickly!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

What is LECTIO DIVINA, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11?

Benedict desired his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life.

There are variations on Lectio Divina, but essentially, the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime).

Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others?

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

when he says, “Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.” Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us?

This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday,

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Christ promises to acknowledge us before his Father if we will acknowledge him. In what ways are we called to acknowledge Christ today? In what ways are we tempted to deny him, to distance ourselves from him?

TO REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

We hear how the prophet Jeremiah turned to God when he felt alone and attacked. What do you need to pray to God for this week?

Second Reading:

Paul taught that through the grace of God, Christ reversed the sin of Adam, which brought death to all. When have you felt God's grace in your life?

Gospel:

Jesus encourages his disciples not to be afraid. What are some fears you have that you could turn over to God?

ST. IRENAEUS June 28

Can you imagine sitting at the feast of the Apostles? St. Irenaeus was born in Asia Minor -- now Turkey -- and was tutored in Christianity by St. Polycarp, himself a disciple of St. John the Evangelist. Irenaeus caught the missionary zeal and became a priest sent to Gaul (modern day France). Following a persecution by the pagan Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius, Irenaeus replaced the martyred bishop in the region. His trials were not over, however. The heretical sect of Gnosticism spread to Gaul. Gnostics proclaimed a secret, spiritual knowledge available only to a few. Irenaeus researched the Gnostic texts and exposed the falsehoods they taught, such as denying the divinity of Christ. His book Against Heresies is still being published today, over 1800 years after his death. May St. Irenaeus intercede for our own quests for greater understanding!
