St. Alphonsus Legacy Gardens By Fr. Terry Kerner

Preliminary concept - July 2023

1852 saw four acres dedicated to God recognizing His gift to a faithful people. 171 years ago, German farmers, who enjoyed and shared their God-given endowment, saw the Faith grow and flourish in the hearts and souls of thousands in three different centuries. Countless parishioners have witnessed the miracle of growth in the fertile minds of the parish young and have been humbled by the loving dedication of their Adrian Dominican Sisters along with lay teachers and parents. Many years of learning self-discipline and sacrifice have given hundreds the courage to serve their country in the Armed Forces - too many of whom gave the ultimate sacrifice. The 171 years have seen the Faith grow through the good and difficult times. The Knights of Columbus, one among many witnesses to a living faith, in the parish have worked with clergy to nourish and celebrate the richness and relevance of the Catholic faith. Through the decades we have honored the Mother of our Lord turning to her with confidence seeking her intercession in desperate times.

As St. Alphonsus- St. Clement Parish has witnessed the removal of buildings that over the years presented the site and opportunity for extraordinary growth in parishioners young and old. Their love for their Catholic faith down through the decades presented the "soil for learning" and gave the locus for friendships to flourish. Courage and unselfishness were taught through athletics, drama, and a host of extracurriculars were celebrated and enjoyed in these buildings. Unselfish service was lived by clergy and religious who exemplified the Christian call to serve one's neighbor. In its first century from 1852 - 1952, forty-two women entered religious life and over thirty young men stepped forward to be ordained to the priesthood.

The buildings are gone but not the memories. Changes are difficult but should not deter us from moving forward. Our incredibly beautiful church stands as a stunning statement of what we represent. Today the church will now be visible from the corner of Warren and Schaefer. No doubt some citizens of Dearborn have never seen it before. The planning for the development of the site involves multiple phases, conditions and approvals.

St. Alphonsus-St. Clement Parish Campus Improvement Program St. Alphonsus Heritage Gardens — July 2023

Dear St. Kateri Parish,
 I write to you today with a full and grateful heart. Thank you so much for supporting the Basilica of Ste. Anne de Detroit by purchasing an ad in our Novena program book. Because of you, we will be able to continue to fulfill our mission to bring the light of Christ to the people of our city, our nation and our world.
 Novena is always a beautiful event with prayer and celebration. I am so glad that you are a part of this tradition!
 Thank you again.
 " and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart... for God loves a cheerful giver." (2 Corinthians 9:6-7)
 Yours in Christ, Msgr. Chuck Kosanke

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It's not uncommon to hear people complain that we Catholics often fail in communicating our faith. Fair enough. We can and should improve there. But it's interesting to notice that Jesus himself was implicitly accused by his disciples of a similar failure. This week in Matthew's gospel they are perplexed that he speaks to the crowds in ambiguous parables. The Lord's riddles leave many people more confused than before. He responds by pointing out that his parables have an intentional dual purpose: to hide (for some) and to reveal (for others) his Gospel: "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted" (Matthew 13:11). Is Jesus being unnecessarily difficult, obscurantist, or, worse, elitist?

No. We have to remember that all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge lie hidden in him (c.f., Col. 2:3). He is the word of God from heaven to be planted in the earth of our humanity to bear great fruit. However, like a lover delicately pursuing his beloved, we're dealing with a relationship, not new data. When we aren't willing to personally accept Jesus into our lives, the "info" of the Gospel will simply not make sense to us. It'll seem bizarre, esoteric, or like incoherent religious-speak. But when we are willing to accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense. When others don't understand the Church or the Lord, let's be patient. Love is patient. Sometimes it has to hide before it is revealed.

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We are all sowers in the field. Our time, our money, our attention: these finite resources are the seeds, and the choice is ours where we scatter them. Do we focus our efforts on soil that will bear fruit for the kingdom?

TO REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah assured the Israelites who were exiled in Babylon that God's word is reliable and purposeful. How might you help friends or family trust more in God?

Second Reading:

Paul sees creation itself sharing in the redemption and future glory that awaits all believers — "For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God." What do you imagine earth would look like filled with God's glory, absent any "corruption?"

Gospel:

Over the next few Sundays, we will be hearing many parables from Jesus. Today's parable of the sower and the seeds speaks to how people react differently to the Good News of the kingdom of heaven. How would you describe your reaction to Jesus's parables of the kingdom?

Prayer for Good Fruit

Dear Lord,
Grow your word,
truth, identity, and
mission in us.

Inspire us with the fruit you would have us produce.

Help us to stay close to you. Amen.

What event made Jesus weep?
Answer on page 3

Thank you

The IHM Sisters are grateful to the many parishioners from St. Kateri who have made donations of money and household items for our two families in need. They are still in the process of settling in, and now have most of what they need, thanks to your generous hearts. God bless you!
Sr. Gloria Rivera, IHM
