Dear Jesus,
 Divine Physician and Healer of the sick, we turn to you in this time of illness. O dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate our worry and sorrow with your gentle love, and grant us the grace and strength to accept this burden. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servants to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. AMEN

Blessed Father Francis Xavier Seelos was a German immigrant and Redemptorist priest deeply committed to serving those marginalized in the USA during the 1800s. He was known for his gentle and compassionate nature and his tireless dedication to the poor and the sick.

Thank You

Fr. Kerner,
 Thank You all for the support and prayers! Please know of my continued prayers too. My apologies for it being folded but here is a picture from candidacy this August too. Have a blessed day!

There were 8 of us praying the rosary for peace and for our country and for God's goodness. Moreover, I'm sure that Our Blessed Mother was smiling above as we said our prayers. We bonded through prayers for love and goodness and God's Blessings, and we honored Our Lady of Fatima and her appearance to the little children who had such a strong faith. Eventually more than 40,000 people came and saw the "Miracle of the Sun" (in 1917) Thank you, again, for your support.

Dear Father Kerner and the Council and Parishioners of St. Kateri Church,

YOU'RE THE BEST!
 Thank you for helping me with the "America Needs Fatima Rosary Rally". Altho the weather wasn't great, we were able to make the best of it, thanks to God and to St. Kateri's backyard porch. (It ~~didn't~~ rained in 1919, too.)
 May God bless all of you, always.
 Sincerely, (Love & Prayers)
 Barbara Hansen

One of them, a scholar of the law, tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."

Missed "The Letter" Delivery?

For those of you who were unable to attend the film screening of "The Letter," the YouTube link is given below so that you can watch it at home. It's well worth your time. "The Letter" is based on the Church's teachings as explained in the encyclical, "Laudato Si."

The issue of climate change is crucial for our lives, the lives of our children, grandchildren and future generations. The issue is so important that Pope Francis published a follow-up exhortation, "Laudato Deum." We do not hear much about Church teachings on climate change in the U.S. Although we have had more weather emergencies recently, our country has not yet experienced as much damage as poorer countries around the world. But still, we are all connected...as God made us to be...brothers and sisters sharing this beautiful gift of creation.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness?

I think so, and here's why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God became human to show us that only love can change the world. Let's not just believe in that love — let's be that love, each and every day.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

We hear today some of the laws that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Namely, God's expectation that we show compassion for those most vulnerable in society. How could you show care for those in need this week?

Second Reading:

Paul praised the Thessalonians for being role models of the faith for the surrounding regions of Achaia and Macedonia. How do you model your faith to family & friends?

Gospel:

For Jesus, love of God and love of neighbor and self are the most important commandments. Which of these commandments do you do best?

Prayer for Our Deceased

Dear Lord,
Comfort us in our grief as we mourn those no longer with us on earth.

Free those in purgatory quickly, and guide us in Your will, so that one day we may all be united with You, for eternity.

Amen.

HALLOWEEN-Is Halloween a pagan holiday or a Catholic one?

The short answer: nowadays, a little bit of both. But it wasn't always that way. Halloween and All Saints' Day are closely connected. In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints' Day. It was originally called All Hallow's Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallows' Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and pranks?

All Saints' Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2nd is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as "dark" spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today's celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. But remember ... this feast was Catholic first!
