God of all goodness, Look with mercy on all who suffer any kind of infirmity, sickness or injury, that they may be comforted. Let your hand of healing and protection be upon them. When they are fearful, ease their fears. When they are anxious, give them strength and courage.
Amen

St. Ignatius of Antioch, a bishop of Antioch in the first century, was a direct disciple of the apostle John. Despite being thrown to the lions and martyred in Rome's Colosseum for his faith, his teachings and hope for Christian unity live on as early examples of Christian theology.

Nativity of Our Lord Church
5900 McClellan, Detroit, Michigan 48213

Dear St. Kateri Parishioners,

We, at Nativity of Our Lord, thank you for your generosity and your continued support of our Christmas Assistance Program. We filled the parish minivan with household items, clothes and toys and had to come back for the rest of it. A special Thank you to Therese for everything she did to make things run smoothly.

Over the week of December 11 families picked up their food boxes which include fresh produce, canned goods, a ham or turkey and fresh bread. They also received gift cards and gifts of clothing and toys for the children within those families. The families are so appreciative that they don't have to worry about Christmas for their children.

We service the zip code 48213, which is one of the largest and poorest in the city of Detroit. What is unique about our Christmas Program is that there is something for everyone in the house in the bags they receive. Most other Christmas programs have an age limit of 13. We feel everyone in the house deserves a little gift for Christmas, and with your help, especially with household items, we are able to provide something for everyone. One mom was so excited when seeing the bucket with cleaning supplies she was receiving, jumped up and down saying my house will be clean now. This year, through donations, we were able to assist 181 families which was a total of 783 people, our biggest year to date. Christmas was extra special for our families this year because of your generosity.

We thank you for your assistance and ask God to bless you for your generosity.

Yours in Christ, Anne Crowe

Secretary & Christmas Program Director, On Behalf of Msgr. Daniel Trapp, Pastor

St. Alphonsus-St. Clement, St. Barbara, St. Kateri, St. Maria Goretti

Join us this Lenten season as Dr. Kevin Clarke explores 'The Seven Deadly Sins and Their Remedies' in this free, online self-paced course.

Learn how the capital vices can be important considerations for self-diagnosis in examining your conscience and how the virtues can provide healing for our spiritual ailments. Our 6-module course is your gateway to understanding how these capital vices affect your life and, more importantly, how to harness the virtues for personal growth.

In this FREE, online self-paced course you will:

- Learn to diagnose your inner struggles and examine your conscience with newfound clarity.
- Uncover the ancient wisdom of luminaries such as Gregory the Great, Augustine, Maximus the Confessor, and many more.
- Discover how to turn your 'evil thoughts' into virtuous living, taking strides towards holiness.

Don't miss out on this opportunity to strengthen your spiritual well-being this Lent. Completing at your own pace, you can use this course as a Lenten study to grow spiritually.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

I love movies about exorcisms. Apparently, so do many others. The 2023 movie “Nefarious” features a possibly possessed inmate on death row. Critics were not impressed, but audiences scored it at 97% on the website Rotten Tomatoes. Most people have an appreciation for the demonic realm, even if cultural elites are generally embarrassed about it. As is standard in exorcism movies, the afflicted person (in this case, a man named Edward Brady) thinks and acts like multiple persons. He is someone besides himself. We know what that is like. We feel fake sometimes, not ourselves.

man’s identity is fractured, divided, and thus many. Jesus powerfully expels the spirit by saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!” Jesus’ word has the power to restore the man’s singularity — him — and indeed it does.

All this helps us to dismiss childish images of demons sporting red goat tails. Equally, it overcomes the cultured aloofness that dreams demons are mere metaphors for evil. We see instead that fallen angels are conscious and intelligent beings who orient their agency toward division. They bring about schism where there should be unity, e.g., in persons, families, communities, politics, and so on. Thankfully, Jesus commands demons to flee from all these places to restore wholeness and peace. What if we made room for his word where we need it?

— Father John Muir

The same dynamic is on dramatic display this week in the Gospel. Jesus the Exorcist approaches a possessed man who utters, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?” Notice the plural, us. The basic effect of the demonic is division. The

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

With one swift command, Jesus freed a man from the possession of evil spirits. He has that same power to banish the shadow of sin from our own lives. Let’s invite him into our hearts, asking him to cleanse the darkness he finds there.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Moses taught the Israelites that God would raise up a prophet like him to teach them the Lord’s commands. But he also forewarned about false prophets. How can we avoid listening to false prophetic voices?

Second Reading:

Paul expresses his desire for the Corinthian believers to be free of anxiety so they can focus their attention and energies on Jesus.

What distracts you from the Lord?

Gospel:

Mark informs us that early in Jesus’s public ministry his “fame spread” quickly throughout Galilee because of his powerful deeds, such as the healing of the demon-possessed man in today’s reading. Is there something or someone in your life that you pray Jesus would heal?

Prayer for the Youth

Dear Lord,
Be with our young people this week and always — keep them in Your care. Help them to form godly friendships, speak the truth, and know You in the personal way that will challenge, shape, and guide them. Amen.

AROUND THE SHOP

We had an overwhelming response to the House Blessing kits this year and had to quickly order and assemble more kits. We have restocked the kits and they are now available again. Sorry to those who had to wait, but know that our houses can be blessed anytime of the year...not just on the Epiphany.

Thanks again for all your support. In 2023, our parish was able to send $1,378.75 to the Red Cloud Indian School in South Dakota. We're sure that St. Kateri and Servant of God Nicholas Black Elk are very pleased. God bless you for your generosity!
