AROUND THE SHOP

Spring is just around the corner and some early signs of Spring are popping up in the Gift Shop. We have received a new supply of garden flags including images of Our Lady of Guadalupe, St. Joseph and St. Anthony. Garden flags are good alternatives to outdoor statues as statues can be heavy and more expensive. Plus, the flags are colorful and attractive.

Pysanki (Ukrainian decorated wooden Easter eggs) will be back in early March. We ran out last year as supplies have, unfortunately, been affected by the terrible violence there. Continue to pray for peace!

We are open extra hours during Lent, before & after Friday Stations at 1pm.

Once again we've been very busy feeding 118 families with 303 people, still having a week to go. Our funds are very low and we're not able to help families with their bills. On a happier note, we received from Meijer for last year's Simply Give Program, $43,000 for the fall and $32,000 for the holiday program. Since the beginning of October we already went through $20,000. Yes, the money goes fast because everything is so darn expensive. Now just picture us giving out bags of flour. If everyone takes a bag we've given out 118 bags. Incredible! Without your help we could not do this and this is the season (Lent) to help the needy. After visiting a few other pantries, I realize how fortunate we are here and all the support we receive from you wonderful people. Many pantries are hurting. If you have it in your heart and have extra funds, please drop an envelope in your offertory baskets marked SVdP food pantry and we will receive it without question. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for the fantastic support we constantly receive from you. God's blessings to ALL!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn

3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation.

How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Out of love for us, God sent His son into the world, to illuminate the truth that brings salvation. But light can be blinding to eyes that have only seen darkness. Pray that God will teach us to walk bravely in the light.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

We hear how God reacted strongly against Israel's disobedience and infidelity, ultimately sending them to exile in Babylon. But God also showed mercy to Israel in sending king Cyrus of Persia to rescue them. As we enter the fourth Sunday of Lent, for what do you need God's mercy in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Ephesians that by God's mercy and grace, we have been saved through Christ for the good works that God has prepared for us.

Where in your life do you feel like you are doing God's work?

Gospel:

Jesus taught Nicodemus that God loves the world and desires to save it. In what ways do you show love and respect for our world?

Lenten Disciplines of Fasting & Abstinence

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.
