From the Pastor's Desk by Fr. Terry Kerner,

Good News! The new air-conditioning equipment has been ordered. The expected delivery is in a few weeks. This is no doubt the worst time of the year to have this situation with the heat and humidity of summer, but it is what it is. Once installed I am sure we will appreciate AC for many years ahead. Thank you for all your patience.

We have had several funeral lunches and hosted other events over the past few months. So many times, I have heard from attendees how impressed they are with the cleanliness of our facilities and the well-maintained landscaping and grounds. All compliments are appreciated. But none of this is possible without the dedication and expertise of our staff. Special thanks to Therese Terns, Matt Masley and Mary Below for their continual dedication to the parish. I have to believe that our patroness St. Kateri inspires them. When you see Therese, Matt and Mary, let them know your gratitude for their efforts.

Every year I am amazed at our parish's support of the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA).

Currently we have 46% participation rate of parishioners allowing us to claim 152% of our target. This is our only "fundraising" effort every year and is not subject to any Archdiocesan tax. The CSA allows us to attend to necessary capital improvements, repairs and many other concerns. We realize that not everyone can afford a large gift. A large gift is not a measure of one's generosity. Giving is! Everyone, if only praying for our efforts, is still giving from the heart. Our track record over the years reveals that St. Kateri parishioners have generous hearts.

Thank you for sharing your faith by attending Mass!

Please note:

The Parish office hours have changed for Fridays.

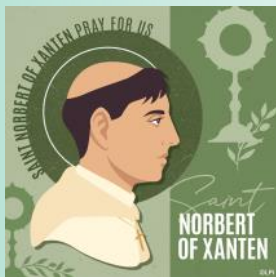

The office will be open on Fridays from 9:00 AM until Noon.

God of all goodness, Look with mercy on all who suffer any kind of infirmity, sickness or injury, that they may be comforted. Let your hand of healing and protection be upon them. When they are fearful, ease their fear and anxieties. When they are afraid, give them strength and courage. Amen

St. Norbert of Xanten (c. 1075-1134) after a violent conversion experience, was ordained and became an itinerant preacher who founded the Norbertine order. He preached against heresies denying the Blessed Sacrament, which earned him the title "Apostle of the Blessed Sacrament."

We have exceeded our goal!

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO DONATE.

You have until August 31st.

All money donated NOW will stay in OUR parish and go towards our air conditioning.

Trivia Answer from page 5:

Luke.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL July 17th

The origins of this feast reach all the way back to the Old Testament. In the book of Kings, we read the story of the prophet Elijah. Much of his prayer, fasting, and public ministry occurred from Carmel, a mountain in Israel. Christian hermits -- seeking solitude -- made their homes on the mountain during the first millennium. Over time, the hermits assembled into a community and were given a Rule of Life. They named their church after Mary -- Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Political upheaval forced the Carmelite order out of the Holy Land and into Europe, where they established monasteries for both men and women across the continent. Many great saints and doctors of the Church have come from the Carmelite order, including St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, and St. Edith Stein. Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Pray for us!

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them."

- Mk 6:7, 10-11

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

— Father John Muir

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts." Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus sends his disciples into the world with no money or provisions — just as he sends us. But make no mistake — he has given us everything we need: the strength that comes from faith in Christ, and the will to do what God has asked. Let's get to work.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

The Israelite priest Amaziah was threatened by the prophet Amos from Judah. What are some ways you have helped others who feel at risk in a difficult situation?

Second Reading:

Paul teaches the Ephesians that in "the fullness of times," God's plan is "to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth."

What are some things in your life you are waiting for?

Gospel:

Jesus taught the apostles to preach and heal only in places where they were welcomed.

Do you recall a time or a place where you felt truly welcomed?

Prayer for the Way

Dear Jesus,
As I set out in your name, be with me on every step.

I don't know where you will lead, but I trust that you will be
with me and that,
for me, that will
be enough.

Amen.
