Welcome

New Parishioners!

To register, change an address,
or if you moved, please contact the parish office.

From the Pastor's Desk by Fr. Terry Kerner,

This weekend we have our newly ordained Deacon Chris Jaskowicz preaching at Mass. Chris was ordained last Saturday by Archbishop Vigneron at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral. He has been preparing for his ordination under the supervision of Deacon Tom who celebrated his ninth anniversary of ordination on October third. Deacon Chris has said how much he enjoys St. Kateri parish and all the parishioners he came to know. He will be ministering as deacon at the Cathedral. I know he would appreciate your prayers!

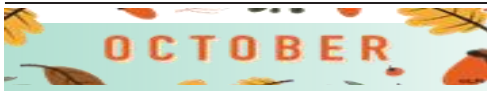

Beginning on October 14th the west wing (organ side) of the church will be shut down for a few weeks. We have discovered the need to replace its ceiling because of damage over the years. The project involves the necessary asbestos abatement before a new ceiling is created. Our insurance covers the new ceiling, we pay for the abatement. For the next few weeks, we will be entering the sanctuary from a different direction. Be surprised!

I want to encourage membership in the Knights of Columbus for men eighteen and older. This hallowed fraternity for decades has served the American Church in important and significant ways. They are a definite sign and presence in our culture of a living faith that makes a difference. For information give the parish office a call and we will put you in touch with a Knight that can answer your questions. You might want to join them next Sunday at the 10am Mass at St. Alphonsus-St. Clement Church (Warren & Schaefer) for their Corporate Communion followed by an outdoor rosary. Member or not, you are welcome to participate.

On a final note, remember that we will be sponsoring on October 25th and 26th a clothing drive. The St. Vincent de Paul truck will be in the parking lot to take your donation. No books or small appliances please.

Have a great week ahead and remember those Lions.

Hail Mary full of grace, spiritual Mother to those in need, we fervently request Your heavenly intercession for those who are ill and seek God's miraculous assistance. You truly care for the sick and offer them Your compassionate support in powerful acts of healing.

Stay near to them with your Maternal protection. Console their anxious hearts and grant that their physical and emotional sufferings be a source of purification and growth for eternal life. Amen

Congratulations

to Christopher Jaskowiec for being ordained a Deacon on Saturday, October 5th at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral by Archbishop Vigneron.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, "At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions" (Mark 10:22). The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, "mine." At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, "Lord, all I have is yours." And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that

He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.

— Father John Muir

For most of us, the literal disposing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Who can be saved?" the apostles wonder. Who can be good enough? Smart enough? Holy enough? Jesus reminds them that no one can be — not without asking for help. We all need help to be holy. Never tire of asking for the help you need.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

We hear how Solomon prayed for and received the virtues of prudence and wisdom. What are you praying to the Lord for these days?

Second Reading:

Hebrews teaches us that "the word of God" knows and understands what is in our hearts and minds. Do you find this comforting or unsettling?

Gospel:

Jesus taught his followers that excessive wealth and possessions can impact one's priorities in life. What are some practical ways to keep Jesus as a top priority in your life?

Prayer of Reliance on God

Oh Lord,

I entrust today's challenges, fears, and uncertainties to You. I don't know how I will do them. I don't know that I can. But I know that You fill the gaps in my ability at every turn.

And so, today, I turn to You again.

Amen.

October - month of the rosary The Scriptural Rosary Origin of the Mysteries

During the thirteenth century, a prayer form, which would soon give the Rosary its Mysteries, began to develop. Many medieval theologians had long considered the 150 Psalms to be veiled prophecies about the life, death & resurrection of Jesus. By deep meditation and skillful interpretation of the Psalms certain of these men began to compose 'Psalms of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.' These were series of 150 praises in honor of Jesus, based upon interpretations of the 150 Psalms. Soon 'psalms' devoted to 150 praises of Mary were also composed. When a psalter of Marian praises numbered 50 instead of 150 it was commonly called a 'rosarium,' or a bouquet. Thus, during the thirteenth century there were four distinct 'psalms' in use at the same time: the 150 Our Fathers, the 150 Angelic Salutations, the 150 praises of Jesus, and the 150 praises of Mary. In an age when unity was held in such high regard, perhaps it was inevitable that these four prayer forms should eventually be combined.

It's that time of the year again! Halloween is just around the corner, and Sacred Heart Major Seminary needs your help. Each year the seminary community opens their doors and their hearts to over 2000 children from the surrounding Detroit neighborhood so that the kids can have a fun and safe place to play games and trick or treat. But they need your help to make this year a success! They are asking for donations of Halloween candy that will then be passed out to the many kids. If you are willing to participate in this important ministry by donating bags of candy please bring them to the containers at the doors of the church, or the parish office during normal business hours.

TRIVIA

Question: What is the name of the basin that holds Baptismal water inside a church?

Answer on Page 3

"What's a shoulder's favorite sacramental?"

"The Scapular!"

"Scapular" actually means "shoulder" in Latin. Scapulars have changed through history, now they are small pieces of wool worn between the shoulders, reminders of devotion to God.
