Loving God, we celebrate St. Kateri Tekakwitha, "Lily of the Mohawks," as one of Your Son's most faithful followers.

Through St. Kateri's powerful intercession, we confidently ask You to share Your healing and peace especially with family, friends and the sick, whom we commend to Your loving care. We ask this through Your crucified and risen Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Word, Who lives with You forever and ever. Amen

November is called the month of All Souls

More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed.

November 2nd, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory.

While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it. Today, belief in purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing and developing before meeting God face to face. God continually invites communion with these loved ones, but some feel the need to continue growing and developing before entering into full communion with God.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Christ tells us that we must love God with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind and all our strength. Live that love loudly. Hold nothing back. Give God all you have.

Deacon Regis: A Minute of Your Time

Today's installment will be short and sweet!

As you know, the presidential election will take place this Tuesday, November 5th. Today I ask you all to pray for our nation and for God's guidance and to urge you all to fulfill your Christian obligation to vote!

To aid in this prayer I invite everyone to join in a Holy Hour that will take place at 6 pm tomorrow at Saint Maria Goretti (Saint Sebastian) to honor the Blessed Sacrament and to pray that the election results will reflect God's Holy Will.

I hope to see you all there. It would be great if the church could be filled to overflowing.

God Is Good All the Time! All the Time God Is Good!

Don't forget, join us this Friday and every Friday at 3PM to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet on ZOOM. See the ad in our SMG bulletin or on the parish website for details on how to join in. Hope to see you there!

St. Kateri Parish Gift Shop News

Happy Autumn To All! Just wanted to let you know that the 2025 liturgical year Sunday Missals have arrived. The new liturgical year begins on December 1st, the First Sunday of Advent. The missal is a light weight pocket sized book that includes weekly Sunday Gospel readings, the Order of the Mass and other prayers. Many people find it helpful when following along with the Mass.

November is the month of All Saints and All Souls. The shop carries biographies of many saints & holy people including St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Carlos Acutis, Nicholas Black Elk, Thomas Merton, and others. If you can't choose a saint to commemorate in November, we even have several "Lives of the Saints" books.

The shop also stocks outdoor cemetery candles...both solar and waxed. Other Memorial items such as books on grief, ornaments, wind chimes and pocket coins are also available.

Speaking of our popular chimes. Our angel and cardinal wind chimes are back in stock. They make great gifts!

Watch for our Christmas items to arrive mid-November. We have been doing our best to find items that will bring joy and a sense of God's love to others. St. Nicholas hinted that he may even have a special gift for you to give to your young children and grandchildren. Stay tuned!

Thank you for your ongoing support. Our proceeds benefit the Parish and the Red Cloud School in South Dakota.

Thank You

Dear St. Kateri Parish,
Wishing you peace and love of Christ!
On behalf of the Dominican Fathers & Brothers of the Province of Nigeria, I hereby acknowledge the receipt of the religious items (videos and dvds) which you sent to us towards our ministry in Nigeria.

I wish to thank you immensely for this and we will endeavor to ship it to Nigeria. However, we may not be needing more of such items because of the cost of shipping as you rightly mentioned in your letter.

May the good Lord continue to bless you and the parishioners for your generosity.

Please, continue to remember us and our ministries in your prayers, as we remember you in ours too.

God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rev. Matthew Achunine, OP
