PARISH CELEBRATION WITH FATHER KERNER

In July 2006, Fr. Terrence Kerner came to Dearborn to shepherd the flock for St. Joseph and St. Martha parishes. Now, 20 years later, Fr. Kerner will continue to shepherd His flock with the title of Senior Priest. Fr. Kerner will officially obtain Senior status on July 1st, 2026. To celebrate these 20 years, the St. Kateri family will host a parish celebration weekend on June 13th and 14th. As we celebrate our St. Kateri family, please take a few minutes to visit with Fr. Kerner, share a memory or two.

On Saturday June 13th, following the 4 p.m. mass, the parish will host a heavy hors d'oeuvre reception provided by Szegidi's Catering.

On Sunday June 14th, following the 11 a.m. mass, the parish will host a buffet dinner provided by Veronica's Catering. Food service will end at 1:30 p.m.

Both meals are free to attend and tickets are NOT required. However, for planning purposes, if you plan to attend, please fill out the form below and drop it in the offertory, drop it off in the office, or mail it to the church.

We look forward to celebrating our parish family and our good shepherd Fr. Kerner throughout the month of June.

St Joseph's HELPERS UNLOCK $50,000 FOR RAMP ACCESSIBILITY

St. Joseph's Helpers is launching a $25,000 matching campaign to expand access to safe, accessible home entryways for seniors and individuals with disabilities through the construction and installation of essential mobility ramps.

A single Ramp + installation can cost up to $10,000

- RESTORE MOBILITY & INDEPENDENCE
- ENABLE ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN COMMUNITIES
- REDUCE RISK OF INJURY
- SUPPORT AGING IN PLACE
- HELP THEM REMAIN CONNECTED TO CARE & SUPPORT SYSTEMS
- SJHELPERS.ORG

While the average home repair costs approximately $500, ramp construction and installation can cost up to $10,000 per home, placing these essential accessibility improvements out of reach for many individuals living on fixed incomes.

Ramps do far more than improve a home. They help:

- Restore mobility and independence
- Reduce fall risk and improve safety
- Support aging in place with dignity
- Keep individuals connected to their communities

We invite you to help us maximize this matching opportunity and directly support safer, more accessible homes for neighbors in need.

ADDITIONAL WAYS TO SUPPORT

St. Joseph's Helpers also accepts donations of gently used aluminum mobility ramps. Donors will receive an estimated value acknowledgment and charitable contribution letter accordingly. Thank you for helping us create safer homes, stronger communities, and greater independence for those we serve.

SACRED HEART PARISH, MT. KELLY CEMETERY

23250 Cherry Hill Road, Dearborn

In recent years, the landscape of Mt. Kelly Cemetery has been changing with a notable rise in the construction of two columbaria – a structure which holds cremated remains.

This shift reflects the broader social, environmental and economic trends we are seeing. As more people choose cremation, a columbarium offers a respectful space and often is more affordable. Also, end of life planning is gaining popularity as families seek to reduce emotional and financial stress during these difficult times.

Mt. Kelly is open to the Catholic Community in our area. For more information, please email me at cemetery@shparish.org - Elena Lovelace, Manager

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER
UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

When I was a young altar server, I once overheard two very different comments about the Eucharist. One person asked, “Is Father distributing the bread or the wine?” Later, another asked, “Can you go get Jesus from the tabernacle?” Same parish, same Mass, but two very different ways of speaking. I pondered: So, is it bread that we pretend is Jesus? Or is Jesus a tiny white thing in a box? I was utterly confused.

This Feast of Corpus Christi is an excellent time to think about how we should speak about the Eucharist. In today’s Gospel, Jesus declares: “My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.” (John 6:55) His words scandalized his listeners, who feared cannibalism, and even today puzzle many, who reduce them to metaphor. Both miss the truth.

The Church gives us better words that honor Jesus’ words in the Gospel. After the consecration, we do not call it “bread” or “wine.” Nor do we say, “a piece of Jesus” or even “Jesus.” We say: the Eucharist. We say: the Body and Blood of Christ. We say: the Real Presence. We say: the Most Blessed Sacrament. These words safeguard the astonishing reality that Christ himself is truly present, whole and entire, under the appearances of bread and wine.

If we speak well about the Eucharist, we will think more clearly and believe more deeply. And if we believe more deeply, we will adore more truly the One who gives himself to us – not bread, not wine, but Jesus Christ himself, whole and entire. – Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The starving Israelites found their physical salvation in manna, “a food unknown to your fathers.” We find our spiritual salvation in the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, a food unknown to too many souls. Blessed are we to partake of the Bread of Life.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading
Moses instructs the Israelites to never forget their 40-year journey in the desert and the Lord’s deliverance of them from slavery in Egypt. What has God done in your life that you will never forget?

2nd Reading
Paul reminds the Corinthians that the Body and Blood of Christ unite us as one body. Do you see your faith community united by the Eucharist?

Gospel Reading
Jesus teaches the crowds that whoever eats his body and drinks his blood will live forever. Who could you invite this week to attend Sunday Mass and receive the Eucharist with you?

O Precious Jesus,
The gift of your Body and Blood,
shared with us, is unfathomable.
Like manna that satiated our hunger, fill us where we lack.
Like the bread given to Elijah in the desert, sustain us.
Grace us with a glimpse into your love for us, now and forever, present in the Eucharist.
Amen.

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! – CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH

Gratitude pays a kind of “moral debt.” Children owe it to their parents; citizens owe it to their country. The Eucharist is the most perfect act of gratitude, wherein God is acknowledged as the source of all good.

When we wander from God, we wonder who we are.
